

CENTENNIAL ARMENIAN GENOCIDE EXHIBIT

APRIL 2ND – MAY 2ND

PRESENTED BY

ARMENIAN HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION OF RHODE ISLAND

Preserving The Past For The Future.

Genocide-It Doesn't Stop

My Grandmother's Family Portrait

Is There Anybody Out There?

Images courtesy of John Avakian Art Work

An Orphaned Portrait

Featuring original artwork, historic artwork, archival material, and propaganda affiches, books, and heirlooms from the era. Historical materials will be supplied by The Armenian Genocide Museum & Institute in Yerevan, Armenia; The Armenian Historical Association of Rhode Island (AHARI) and from privately owned collections.

SPECIAL LIVE PRESENTATIONS

FREE & OPEN TO THE PUBLIC THURSDAYS FROM 6-9PM

Multiple presentations will take place starting around 7:30PM, beginning

APRIL 9TH

*Artist talk / presentation with Printmaker John Avakian and Painter, Installation Artist Marsha Nouritza Odabashian
Live musical performance by touring Boston-based band, Nemes*

APRIL 16TH

*Gallery Night Providence
Diane Postoian, Storyteller / Performer, reading her original work, "Yalanchi" and a chapter from the Human Comedy by William Saroyan
Greg Aslan Chopoorian, Actor presenting a historic perspective*

APRIL 23RD

*Angelo Marinosci Jr., Artist / Performer / Songwriter, performing songs on guitar relating to the human condition
Bob Colonna, Actor, presenting readings from Hovhannes Tumanyan's short stories and pieces from Eric Bogosian's Monologues*

APRIL 30TH

*Cynthia Motian McGuirl presenting a slide show and discussion on a series of works she created, inspired by stories of her family's Genocide survivals
Grand Finale – Artist Kevork Mourad performing live paintings to music compositions of Komitas performed by Charlie Kalajian and David Gevorkian*

Bérge Ara Zobian, Gallery Director
Studio Z

@ the Butcher Block Mill
25 Eagle Street • Providence, RI • 401.751.1970

GALLERY HOURS:

Thursday–Saturday 12:00-6:00PM
or by appointment or by chance.

For more information, visit: galleryzprov.com or armeniangenocide100years.com